

Who, Whom, Whose, and Who's

Directions: For each sentence, choose the correct pronoun in parentheses. Write the pronoun in the blank to complete the sentence.

1. Eleanor Roosevelt, (who / whom) _____ was First Lady from 1933 to 1945, had an amazing life.
2. There can be few Americans (who / whom) _____ have not heard of her.
3. Eleanor, (who's / whose) _____ parents were Anna Hall Roosevelt and Elliott Roosevelt, was born in New York City in 1884.
4. She was the niece of Theodore Roosevelt, (who / whom) _____ was the 26th president of the United States.
5. Eleanor's parents, (who / whom) _____ both died before she was ten, left her in the care of relatives.
6. At school in England, young Eleanor met a teacher, Marie Souvestre, for (who / whom) _____ she had great admiration.
7. Anyone (who's / whose) _____ experienced shyness will know how hard it is to gain confidence.
8. Eleanor, (who / whom) _____ was painfully shy as a girl, gradually grew happier and more outgoing.
9. At the age of eighteen, she became engaged to Franklin Delano Roosevelt, (who / whom) _____ she had known as a distant cousin.
10. This was the man (who / whom) _____ would later become the 32nd president.